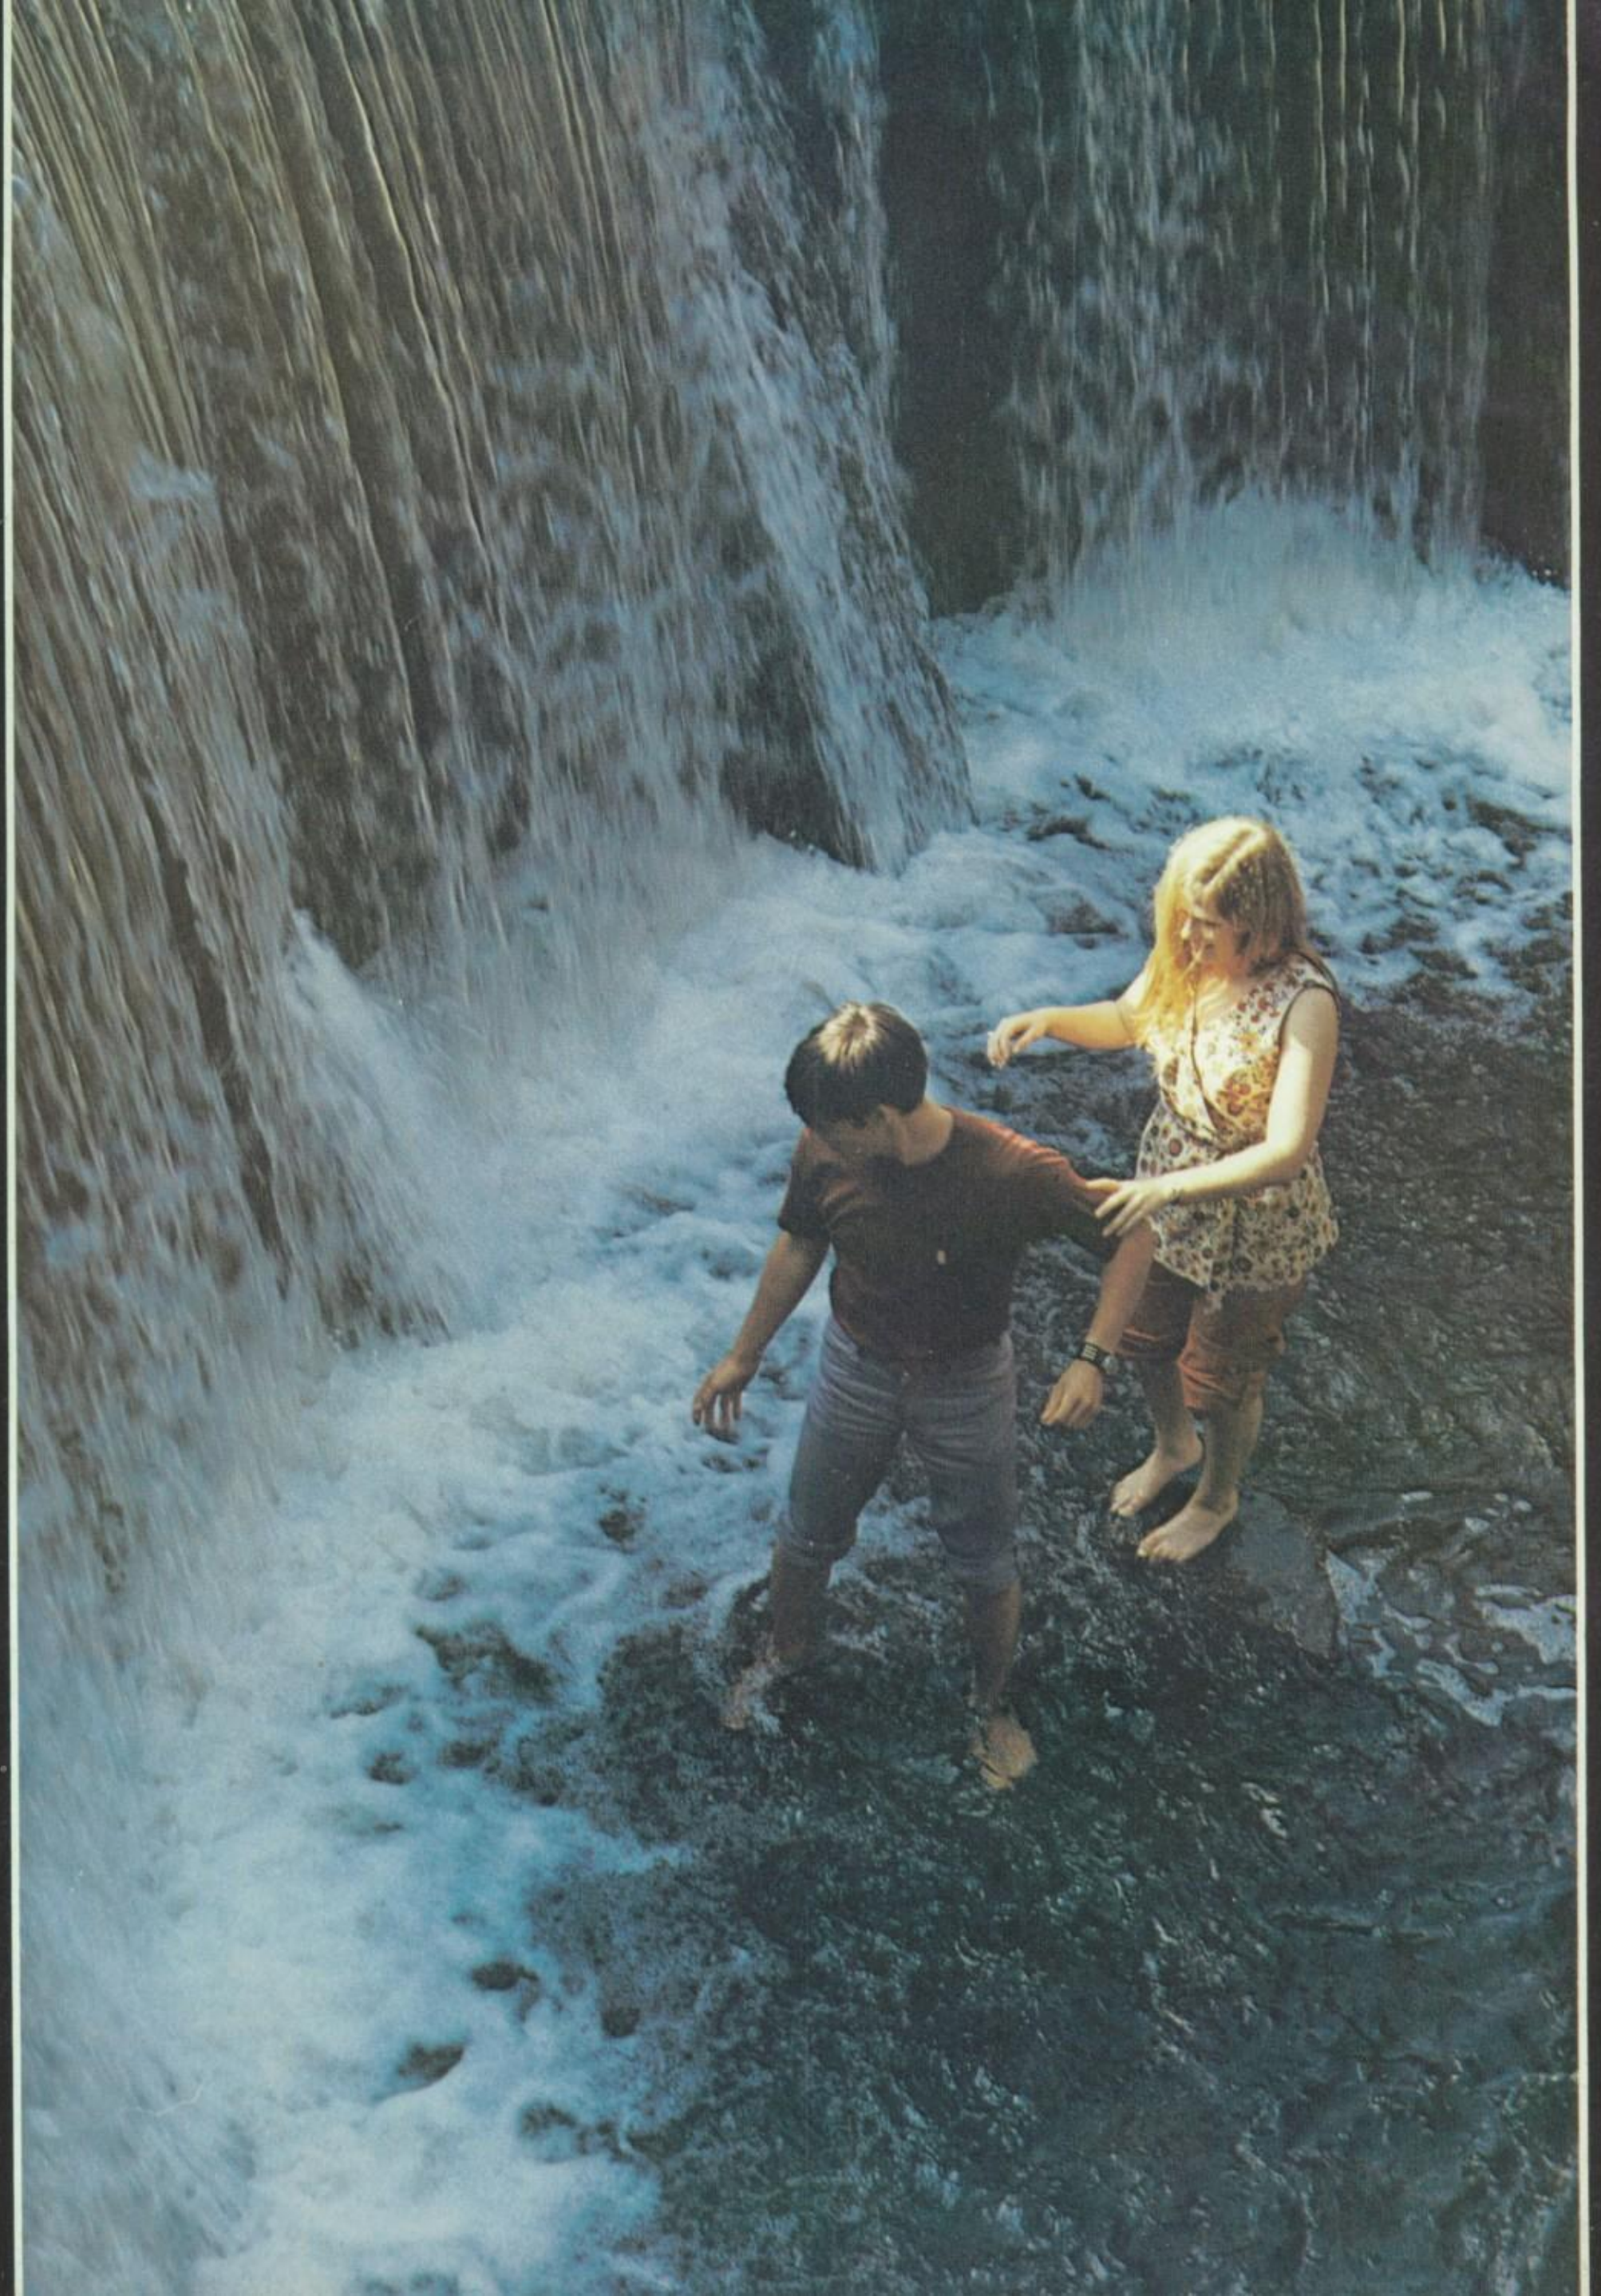
If civilization is to survive, we must cultivate the science of human relationships — the ability of all peoples, of all kinds, to live together, in the same world at peace.

— Franklin D. Roosevelt



Oh, the comfort, the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person; having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but to pour them all out, just as they are, chaff and grain together, knowing that a faithful hand will take and sift them, keep what is worth keeping, and then, with a breath of kindness, blow the rest away.

— George Eliot

Man does not live by bread alone, but by beauty and harmony, truth and goodness, work and recreation . . .

That is happiness; to be dissolved into something complete and great. When it comes to one, it comes as naturally as sleep.

Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

For the SENIORS at Butler, one of the most exciting times of their lives is when that embossed ornament known as the Senior Ring makes its way into the hearts and onto the fingers of the class members.

A day of celebration and a night of exhileration portrayed Ring Day 1973. And after it was all over, each person in his own mind, was a little more satisfied with HIS class of '73.

Dedication

MRS. ETHEL SIGMAN

To say that Mrs. Sigman has helped the Seniors at Butler would be an understatement. No other person has worked for, or strived to understand and to aid the class of '73 more than its guidance counselor. So it is with appreciation and admiration that the members of the Candela staff make this dedication to Mrs. Sigman.

Most Representative winners are elected by members of the Senior Class. The qualities considered are: endurance, dependability, class participation, scholastic application, and relationship with fellow classmates.

A FEW GOOD MEN

On September 28, 1972, The Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association presented to Mr. D.K. McKenzie the highest award a JROTC Unit can receive: The First Place Trophy in the Nation. It was the first time a second year unit had attained such an honor, but actually, no one seemed surprised. The event merely summarized what popular belief had been around Butler: None Better. But the Program is just beginning. It hasn't even reached its peak. So herein lies its story . . . thusfar.

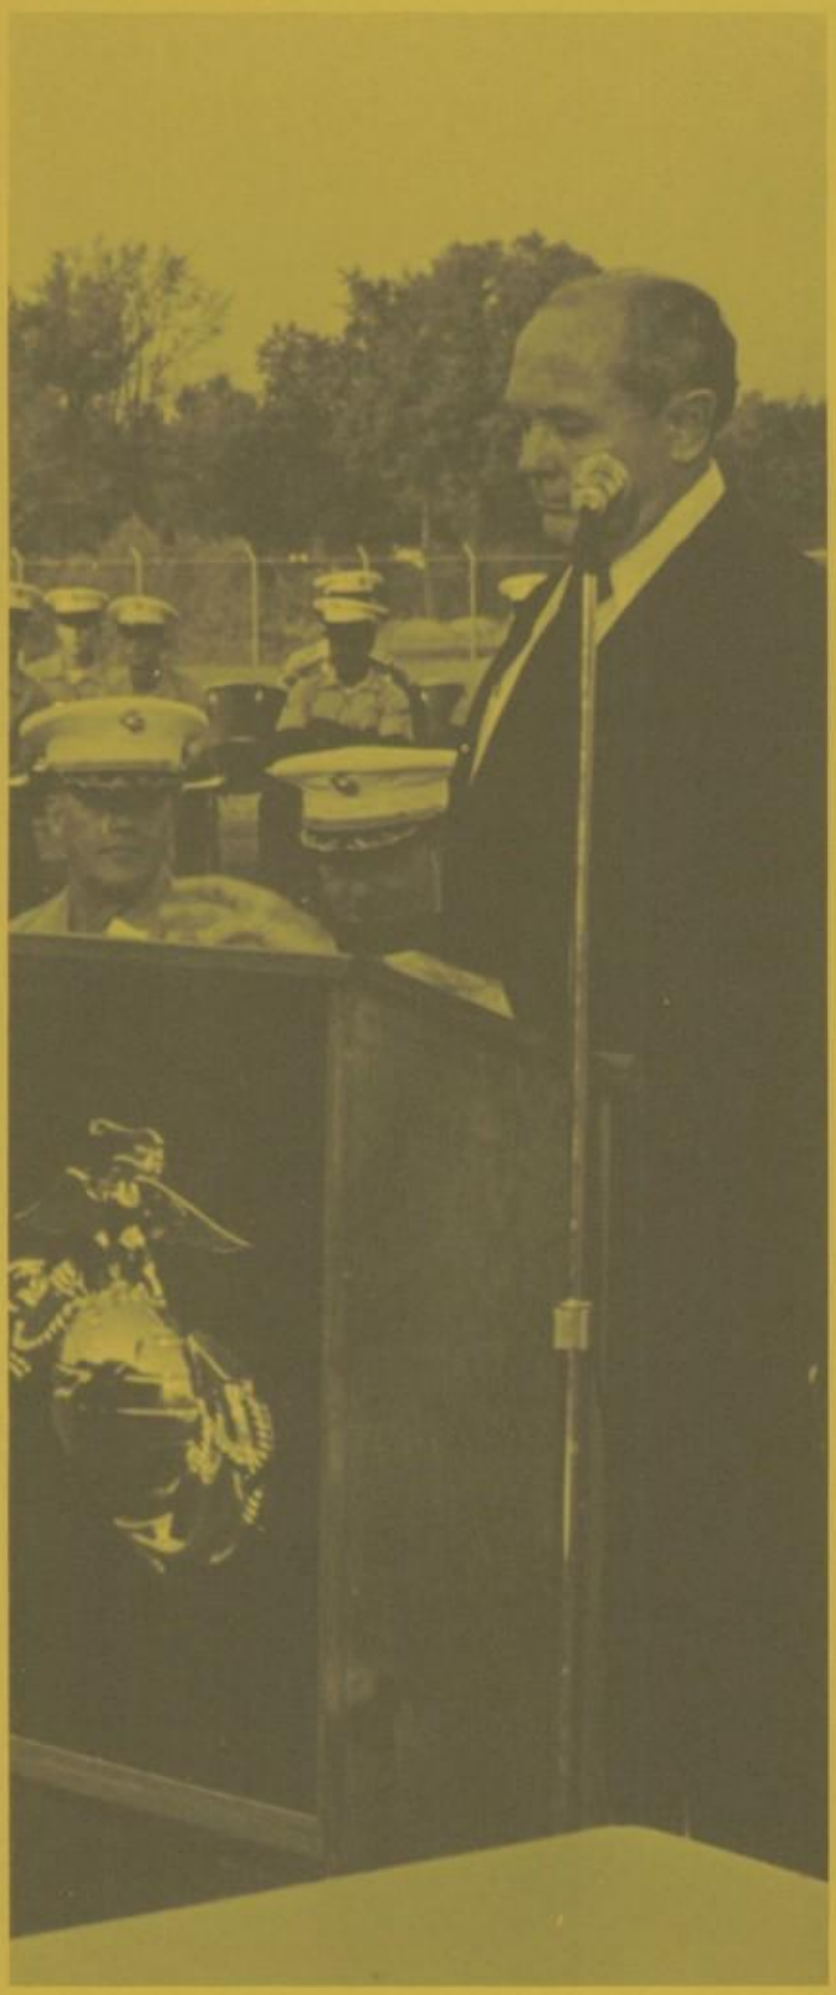
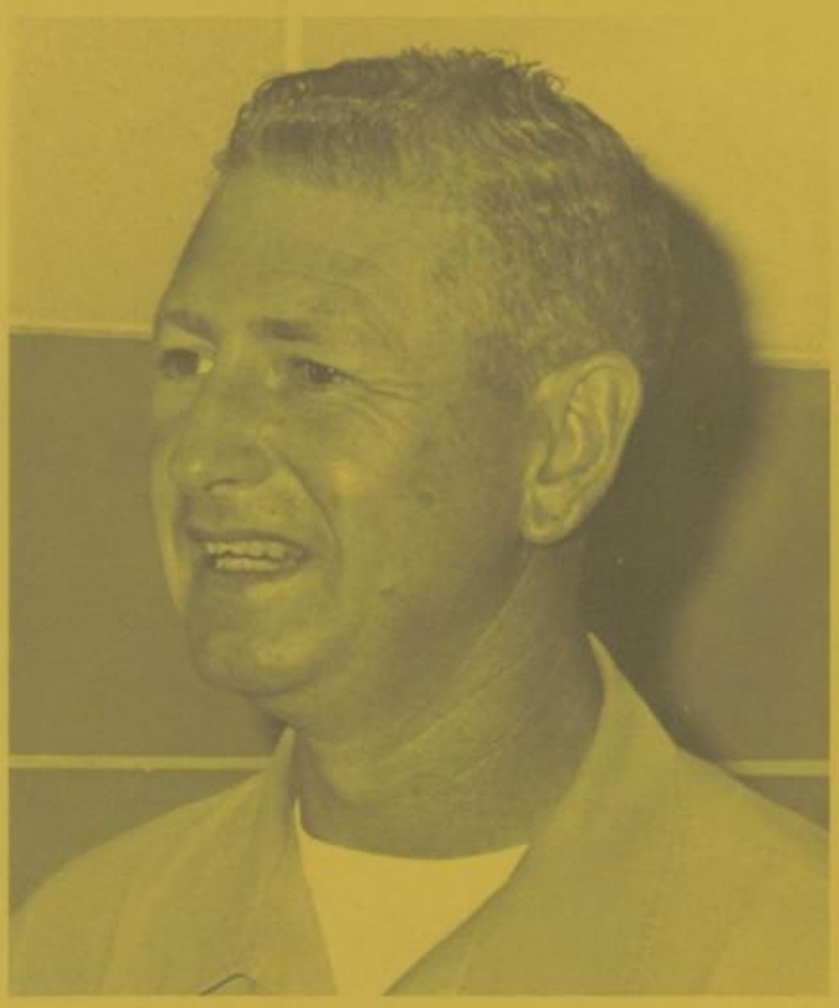
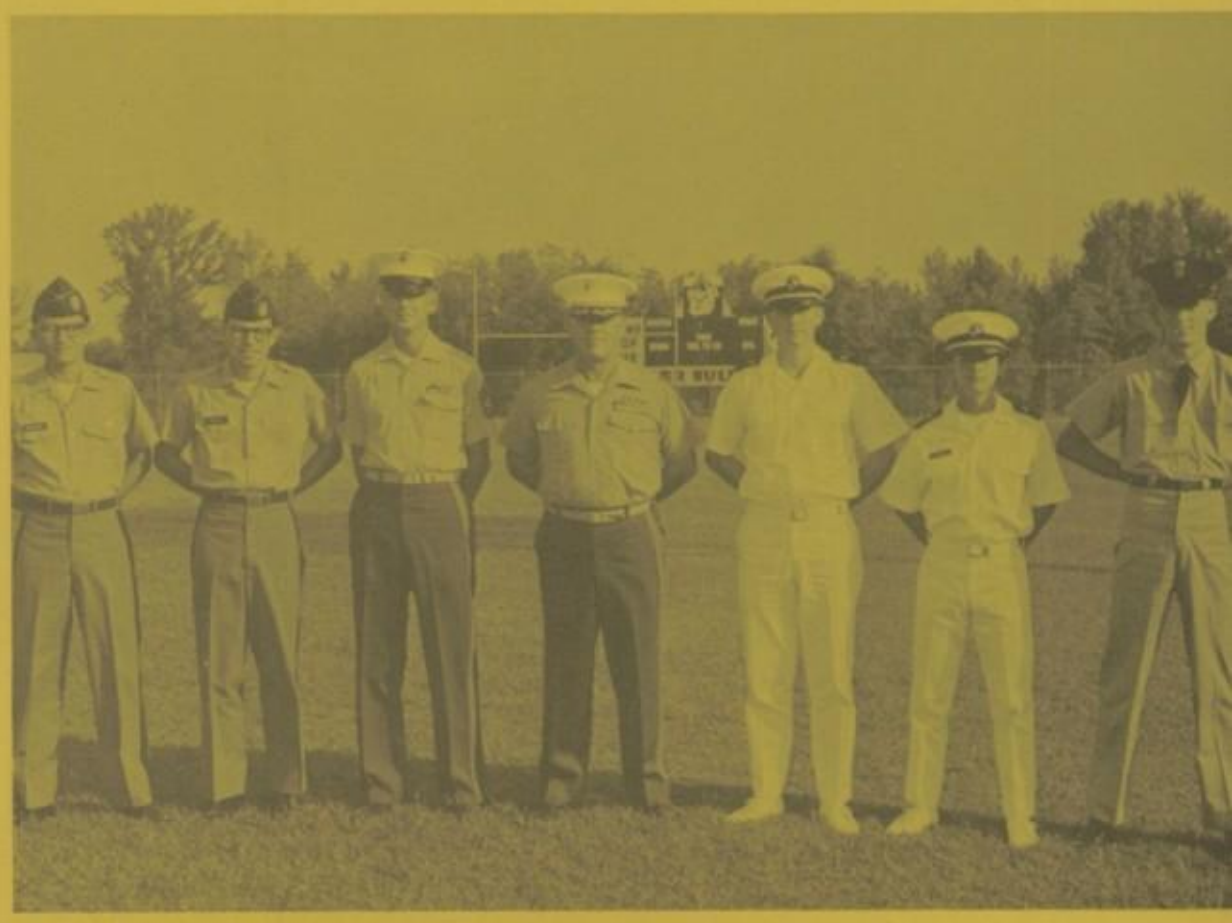
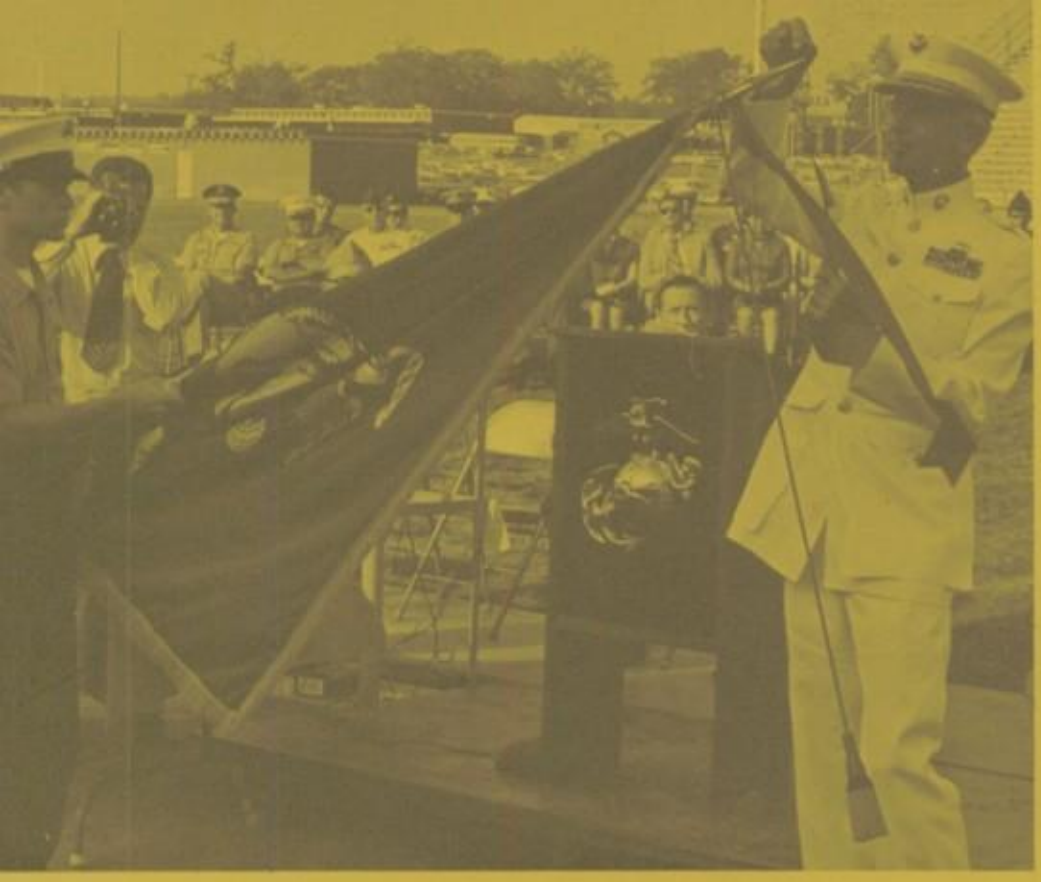
What makes a man a leader? Intelligence? Naturally. Experience? To a great extent. Strength? When used wisely. Character? If projected effectively. All of this and more go into the making of a leader. But many men possess these qualities and never capture the confidence of others. True leadership is an elusive thing. To obtain it, a man must have something extra; something naturally instilled. Only when this un-named, mysterious, yet essential trait is combined with the other qualities can the creation of a leader occur.



The Senior Military Instructor and his assistant for the Butler MCJROTC are Lt. Col. Roy B. Whitlock and M/Sgt. Jack Vicory.







Walter Lippman said,

"The final test of a leader is that he leaves in other men the conviction and the will to carry on."

The few good men who complete the program are faced with a decision. Whether it concerns further ROTC, immediate service, or something totally unrelated to the miltary; the experience they have gained during their three year 'tour' proves helpful in making the right choice. And no matter what field of life each JROTC graduate enters, the small flame of leadership that the program started will grow inside.

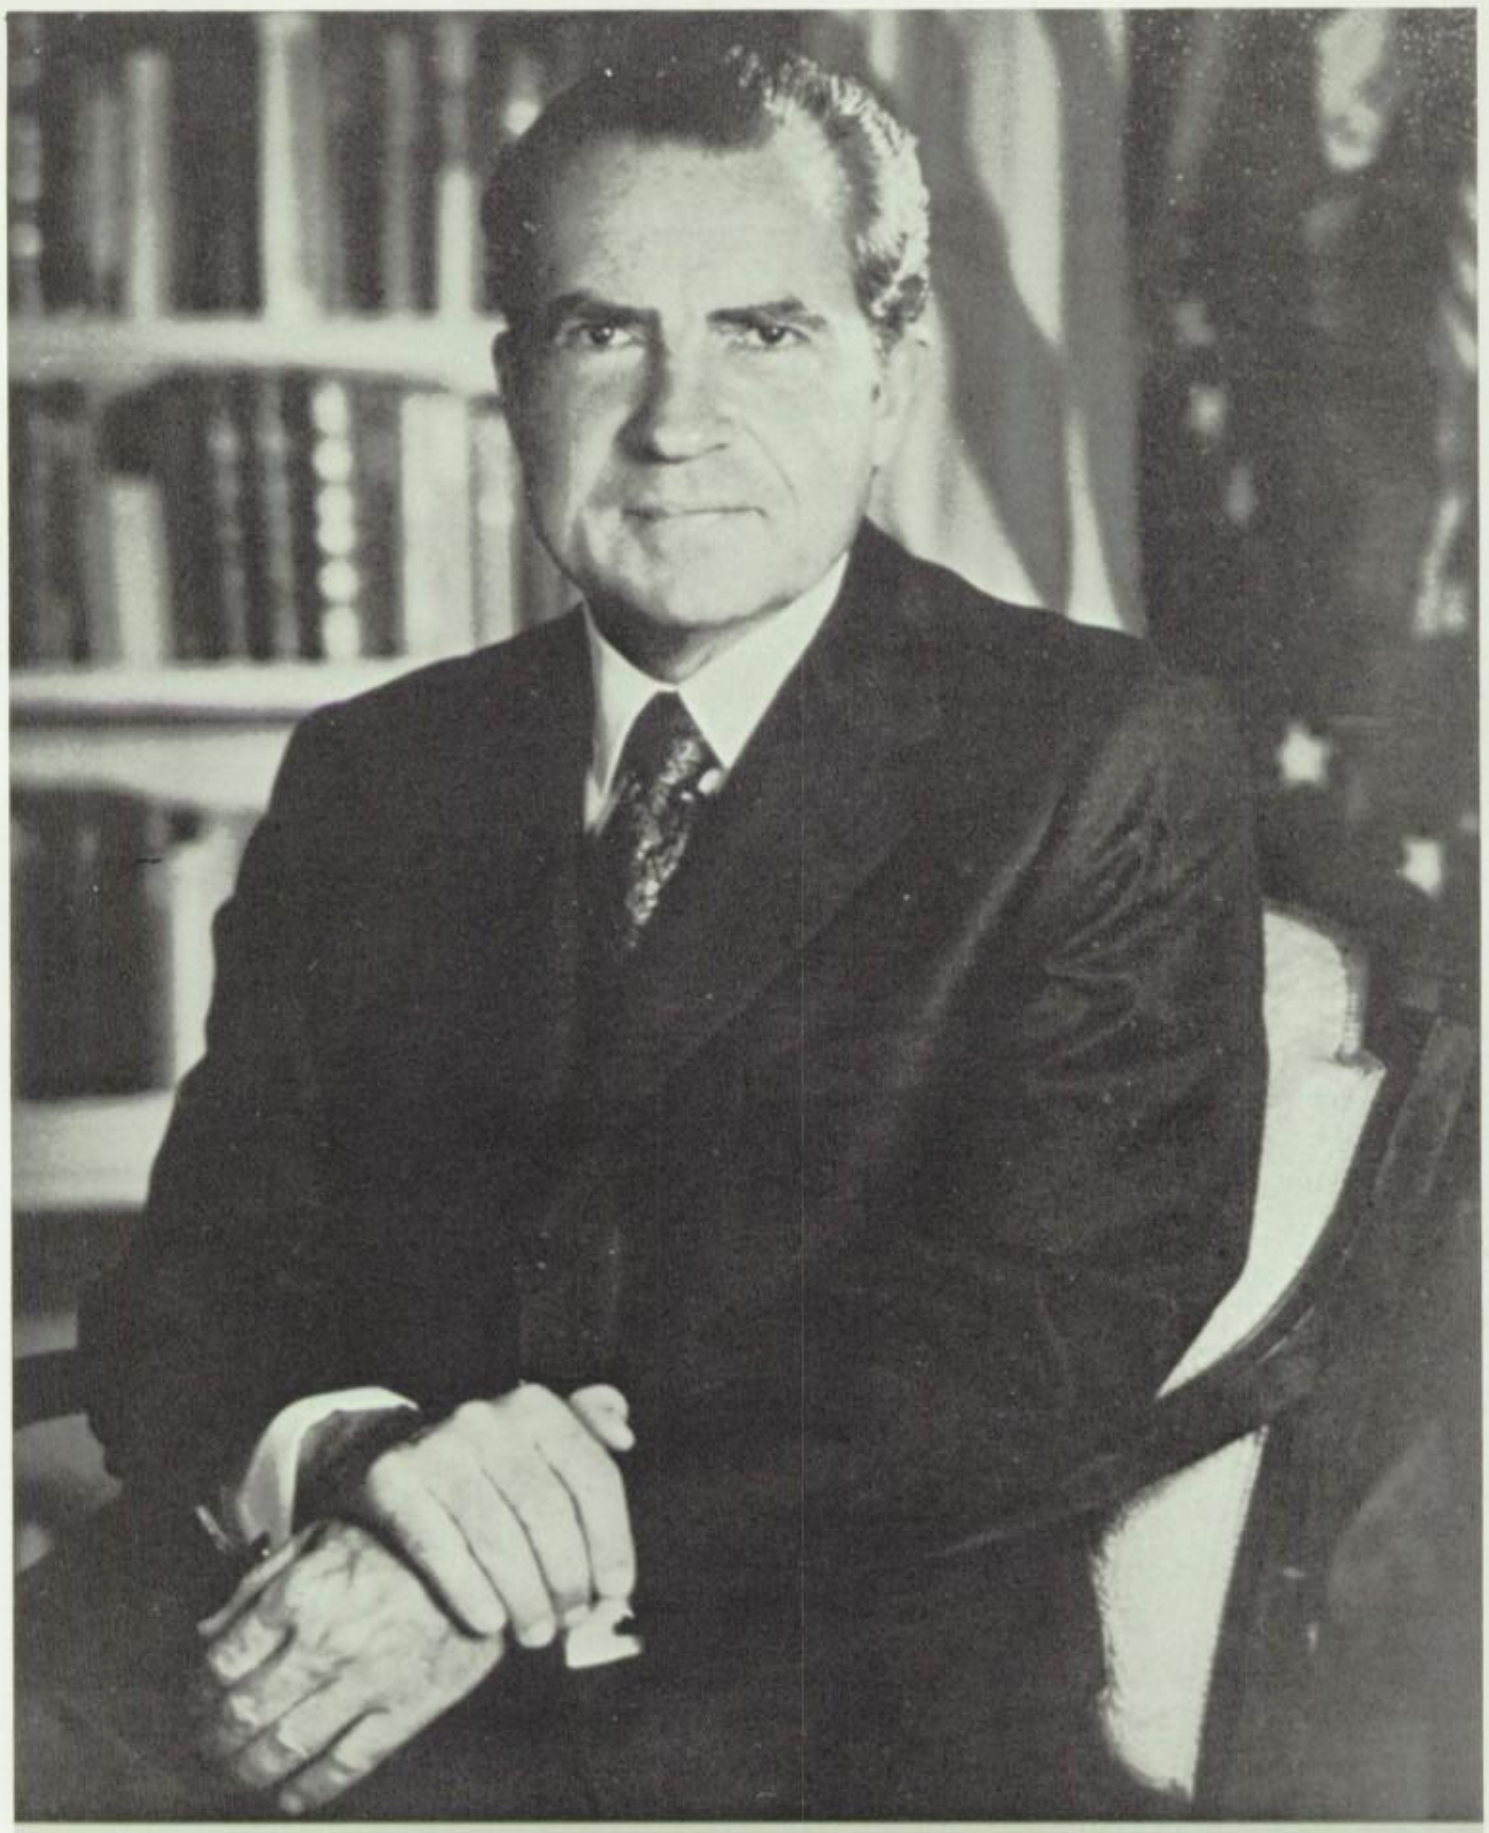
DRILL TEAM

The Drill Team, commanded by Cadet Lt. Col. Randy Avera, performs at various occasions both competitive and non-competitive. In its third year of existence, the Drill Team participated in more community sponsored activities than it ever had before. Spinning rifles, intricate movements, and flying sabers depict the dazzling spectacle of the Butler JROTC Drill Team.

Marching on to manhood takes more than three years; it takes a lifetime. The lessons we have learned, the friendships we have gained, and the achievements we have accomplished during these years all go into the making of a leader and a man. But our road stretches far ahead, and the way is full of detours that sometime seem dismal. The vital aid that we need to overcome life's trying obstacles is provided by the Butler Marine JROTC.

TAKE HEED:
THROUGH THIS DOORWAY PASS THE BEST
CADETS IN OUR NATION.
CAN YOU QUALIFY ????

A cadet's life is not always centered around sighting in and keeping cadence. Sometimes he gets to celebrate for being a member of the nation's most outstanding unit; or he helps elect the ROTC Queen (At right is the 1972-73 Queen, Miss Diana Reed); or if he's real lucky he obtains as seen on the following page . . .



To the Marine Corps ROTC Cadets
of George P. Butler High School
With best wishes,

Richard Nixon

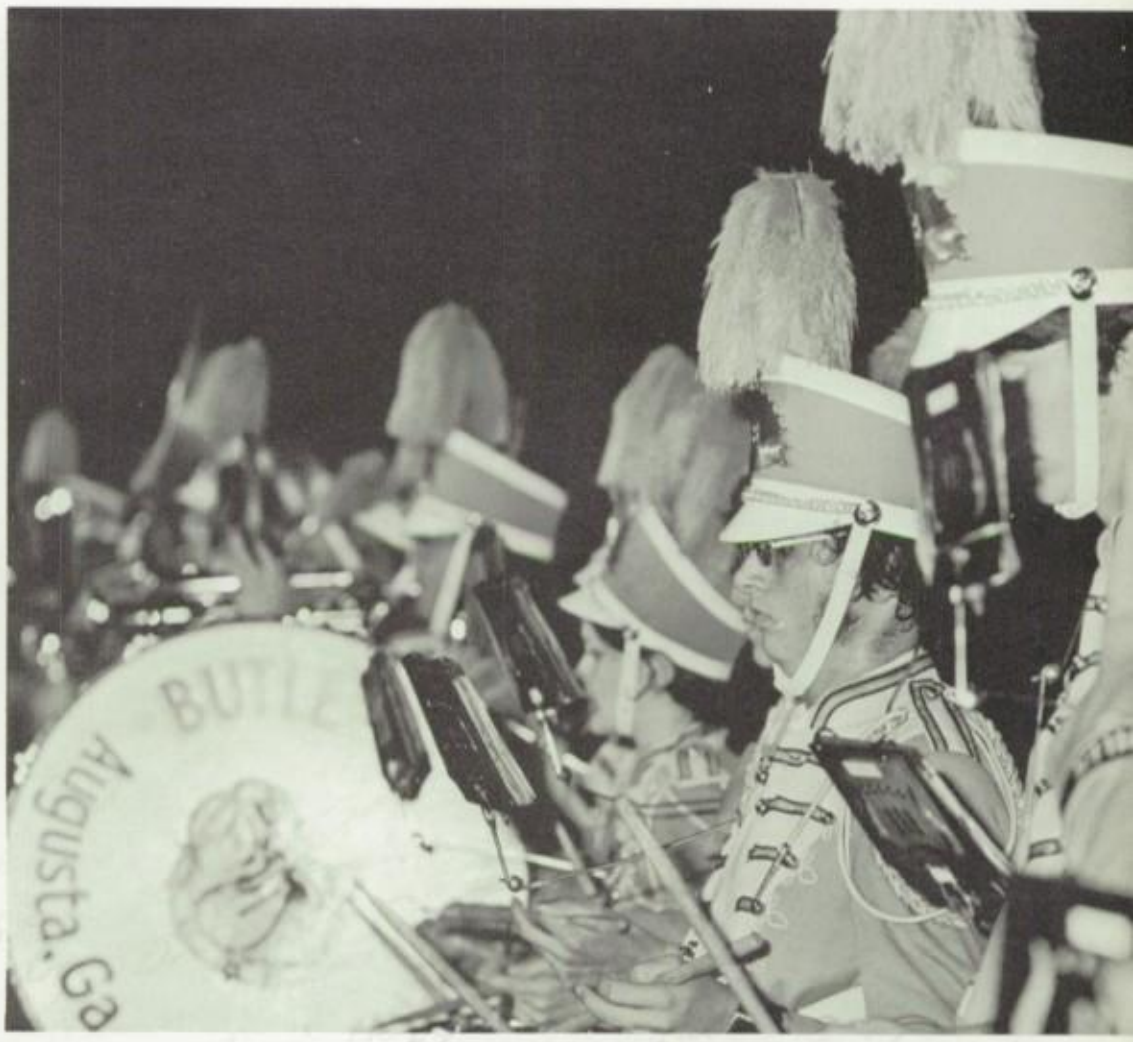
BUTLER BULLDOGS — NO PETS

Butler and Football.

The two words go together. Kill'em Dogs!, We're Number 1! — the excitement of the spectators collides with the desire of the team — Dogmeat! Dogmeat! — creating an emotional tide that is Football at Butler.



Injuries, Illness —

two harder opponents to beat than Central. If it wasn't the quarterback, it was the fullback. If it wasn't pulled tendons, it was Mono. After the field day with Aiken, the Bulldogs were doomed to be haunted with a continuance of misfortune. Considering this, who can say we had an unsuccessful season? Often playing healthier teams, the 'Dogs reached deep within themselves more than once and pulled one out. Spirit.

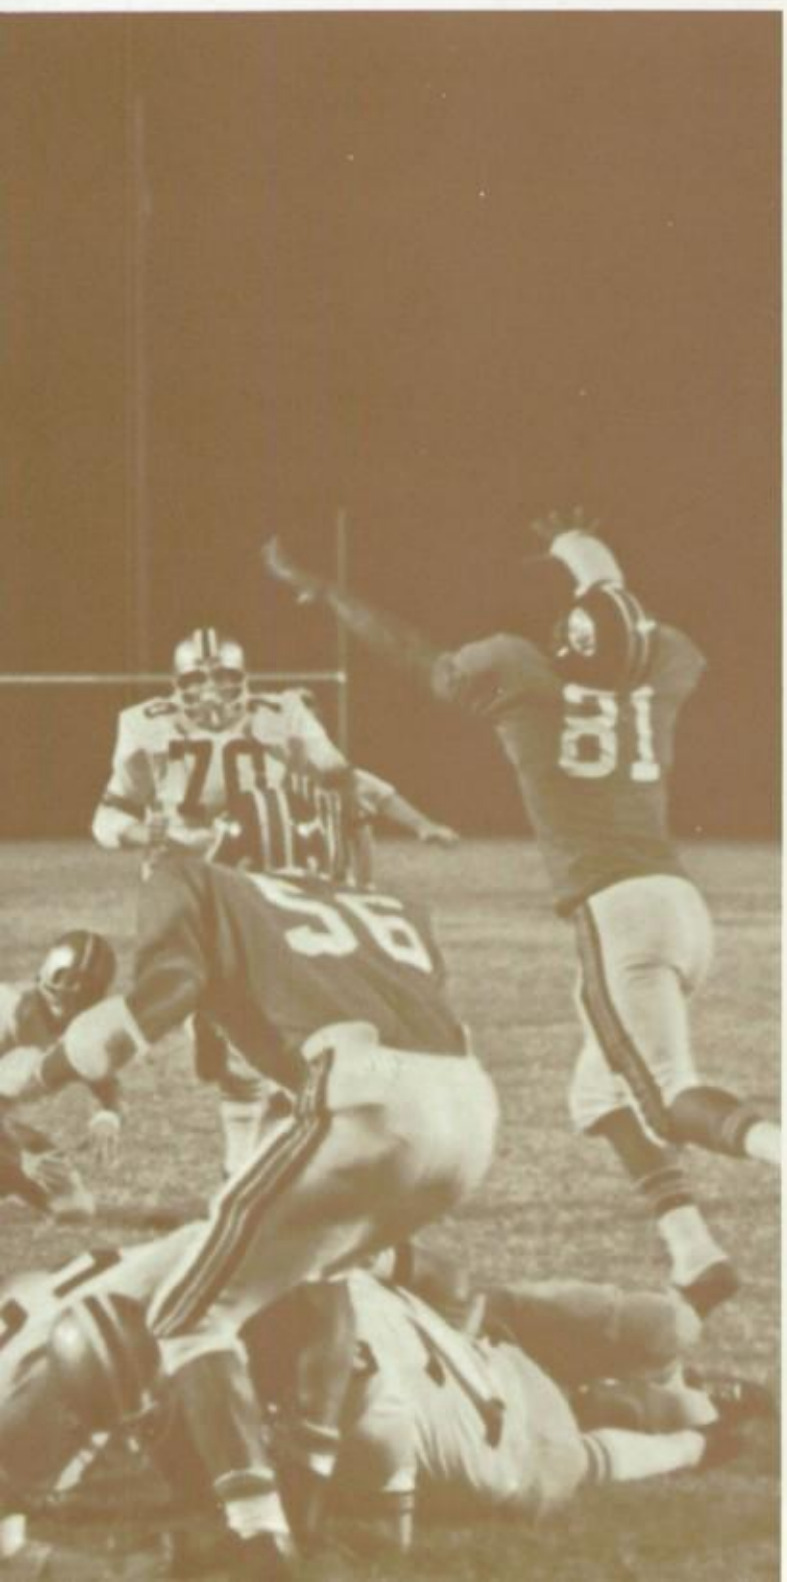
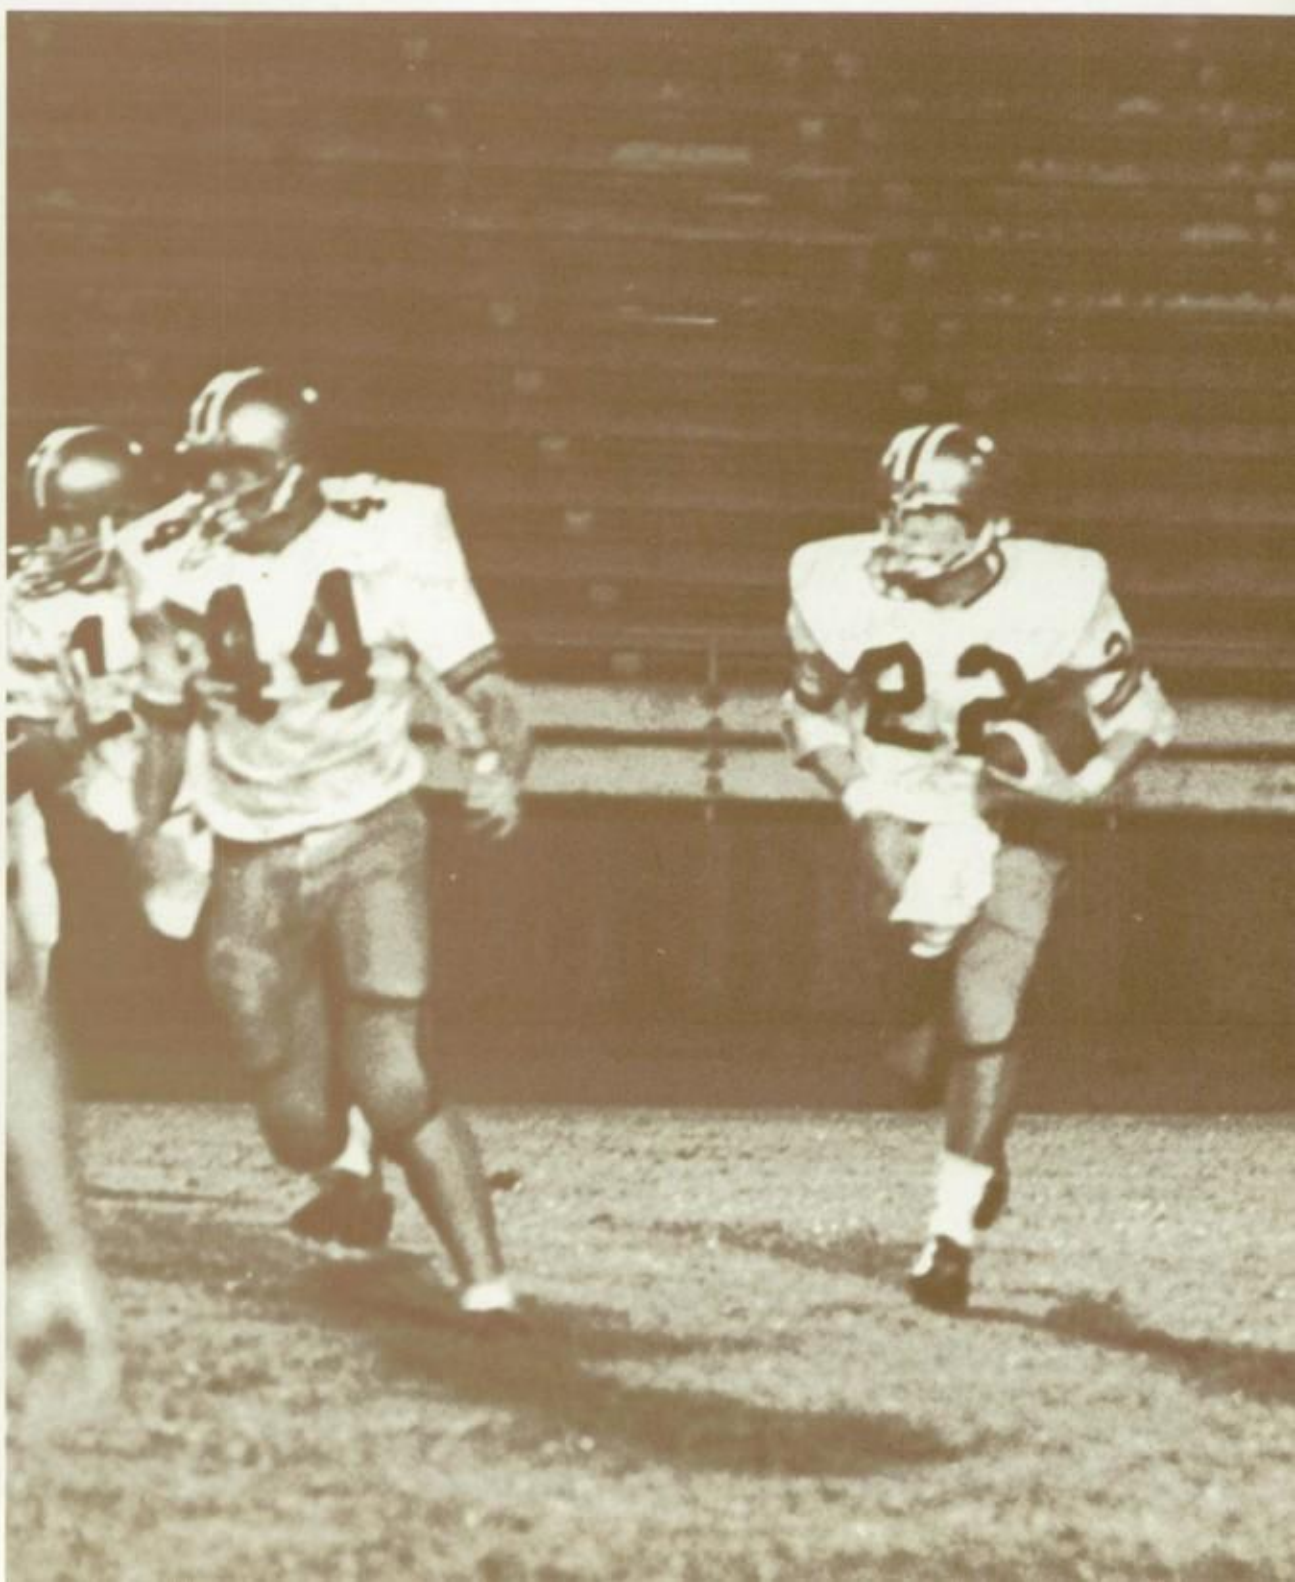
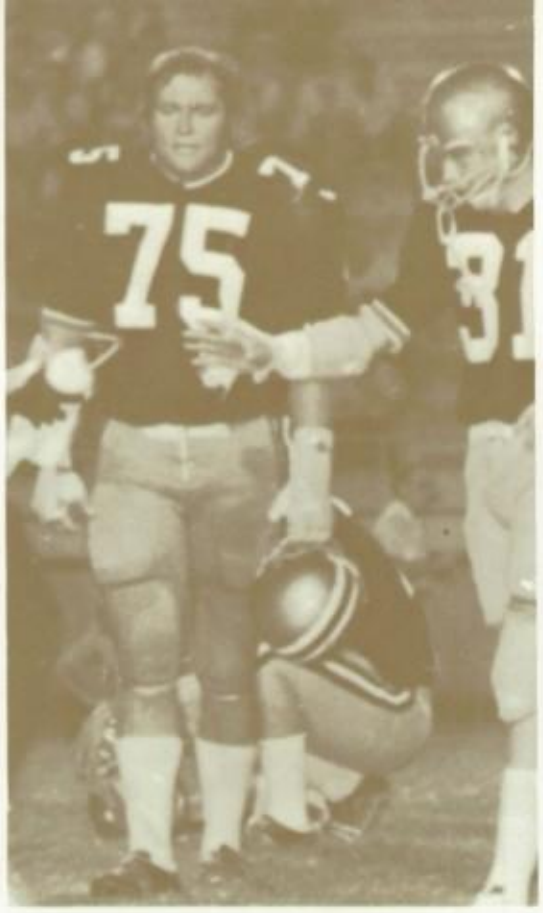
Offense or Defense — which is the favorite of the average spectator? Probably Offense — it's got the ball. But who gets the ball back if the attack force loses it? There are no best parts in a machine — there is no best when it comes to the Butler Football team. Each unit is good, and it works to become better. On Friday night the two become one. They play as one, they win as one, they lose as one. They depend on each other, they are each other. Who gets the praise, Who gets the blame? The team, not the unit. A marriage made in heaven.







75

Preparing for a hand-off after a kick is Senior Back Dennis Yelverton, (RIGHT) & Co.

More than once, the Junior Varsity games offered as much excitement as the Friday events.

Surging forward (AND OVER) is Runningback Mike Crook (BOTTOM). If you look closely, you might see the reflection of the goal post in his eyes.

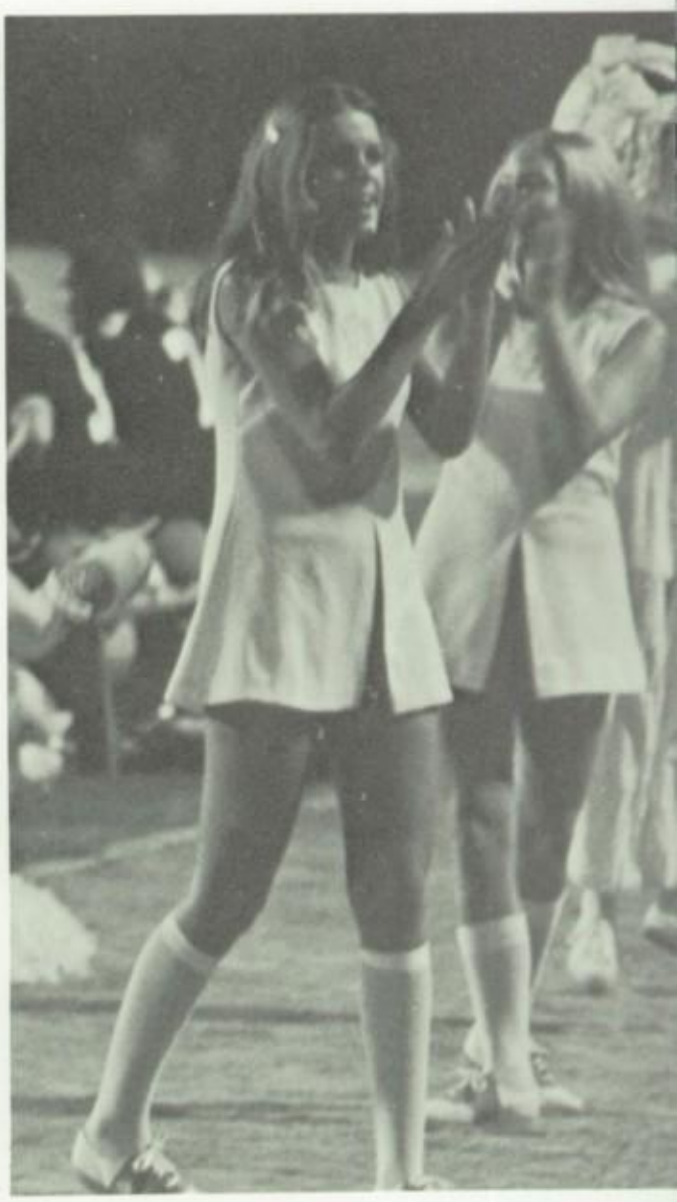
72



Ordinarily, a 5-5 season would be classified as a mediocre year for a football team. But, barring the set-backs of bad luck, progress is the word that describes the route the Bulldogs took. And, at season's end, Homecoming added the ferverently needed peace of mind.

That was it, the season of 1972. The days of practice, the nights of pleasure, the nights of pain. It has been months since the shrill of a field judge's whistle pierced the night; and still the heartbeat of nostalgia is alive. Each player will in years to come often be reminded of his high school days and prominent in them, his life as a football player. But the memories of competition will not be reserved solely for the participants, the faithful, encouraging followers will share in the reminscences of the fading past.

This year the Bulldogs went 5-5, a very balanced scale of events. It's classified as a winning season since the team did not lose more games than it won. Perhaps some feel otherwise. Decide for yourself, but while you are deciding, consider the following. Butler fell pitiful to North Augusta in a meeting that should have been the Rose Bowl, but proved to be a Thorn Jungle. This was at the beginning. At the end, when the school of doubt was in the majority, a staunchly inspired team of Bulldogs claimed victory in the name of Homecoming. A bunch of sticklers for revenge? Possibly, but more likely, a team that is definitely petless.

BASKETBALL — A CHANGE IN TRADITION

Basketball for the 1973 season — A Change in Tradition. It was a change because for the first time in many a rebound the boys' team matched the infamous girls' squad in performance. It was a change because compared with recent teams, the '73ers were the answers to a coach's dreams. And finally it was a change because for the first time in many seasons, the topic of basketball was heard throughout the student body, among the community patronage, and in the predictions of sports casters. It was evident that as the season progressed, the Bulldogs were definitely in the running for the top position in the region.

A Change in Tradition. This year's team did something that basketball teams in the recent past have failed to do: it kept on winning. Blessed with height, accuracy, and speed, the Bulldogs fought their way over other teams which were, by tradition, supposed to win.

TRACK & FIELD
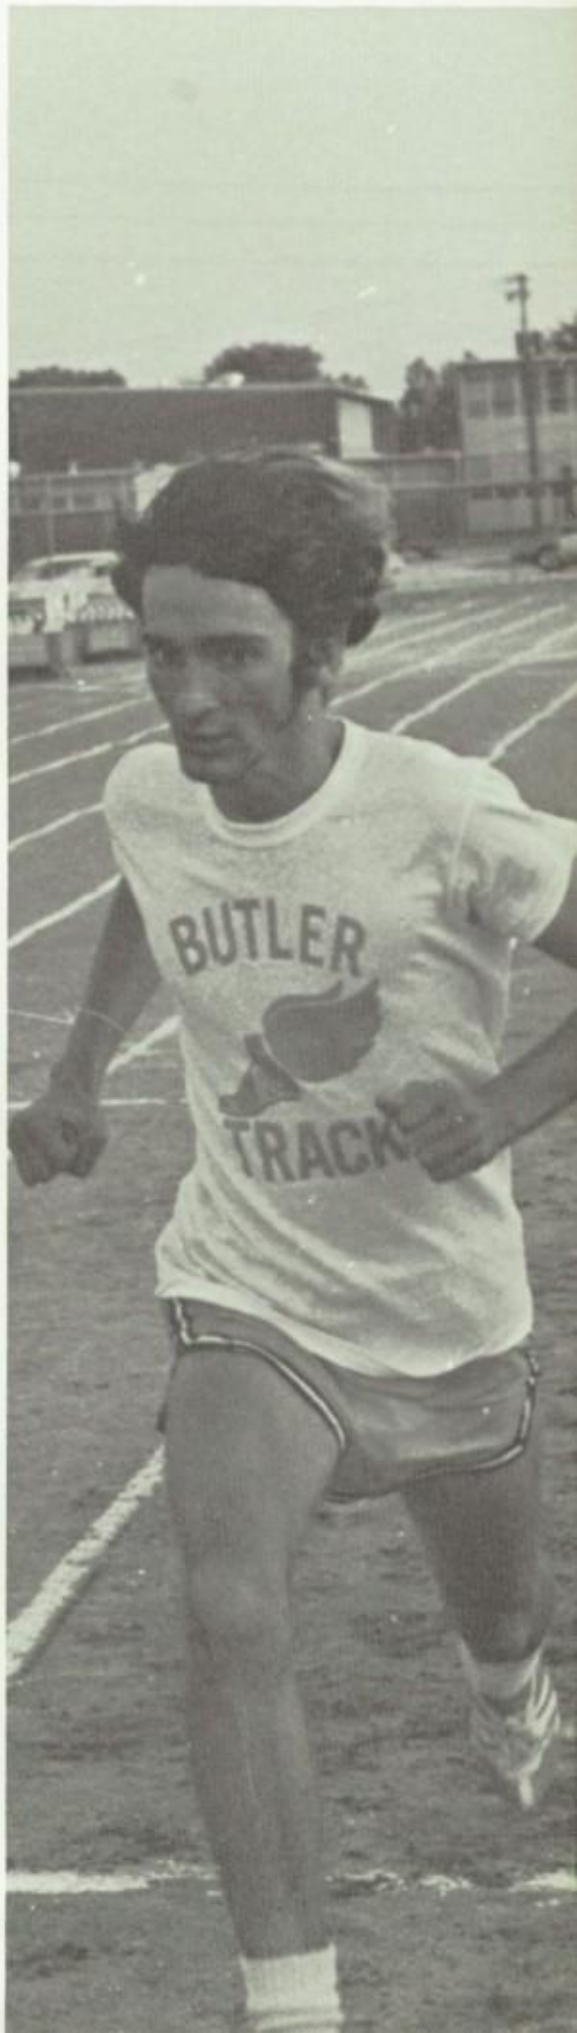
SUMMER

To watch a Track meet is to watch a display of human self-torture. Their faces blood red from heat, and their eyes bulging from strain, the stars of the track make a name for themselves. Butler's team is back on the move again as fresh talent and skill begins to perform.

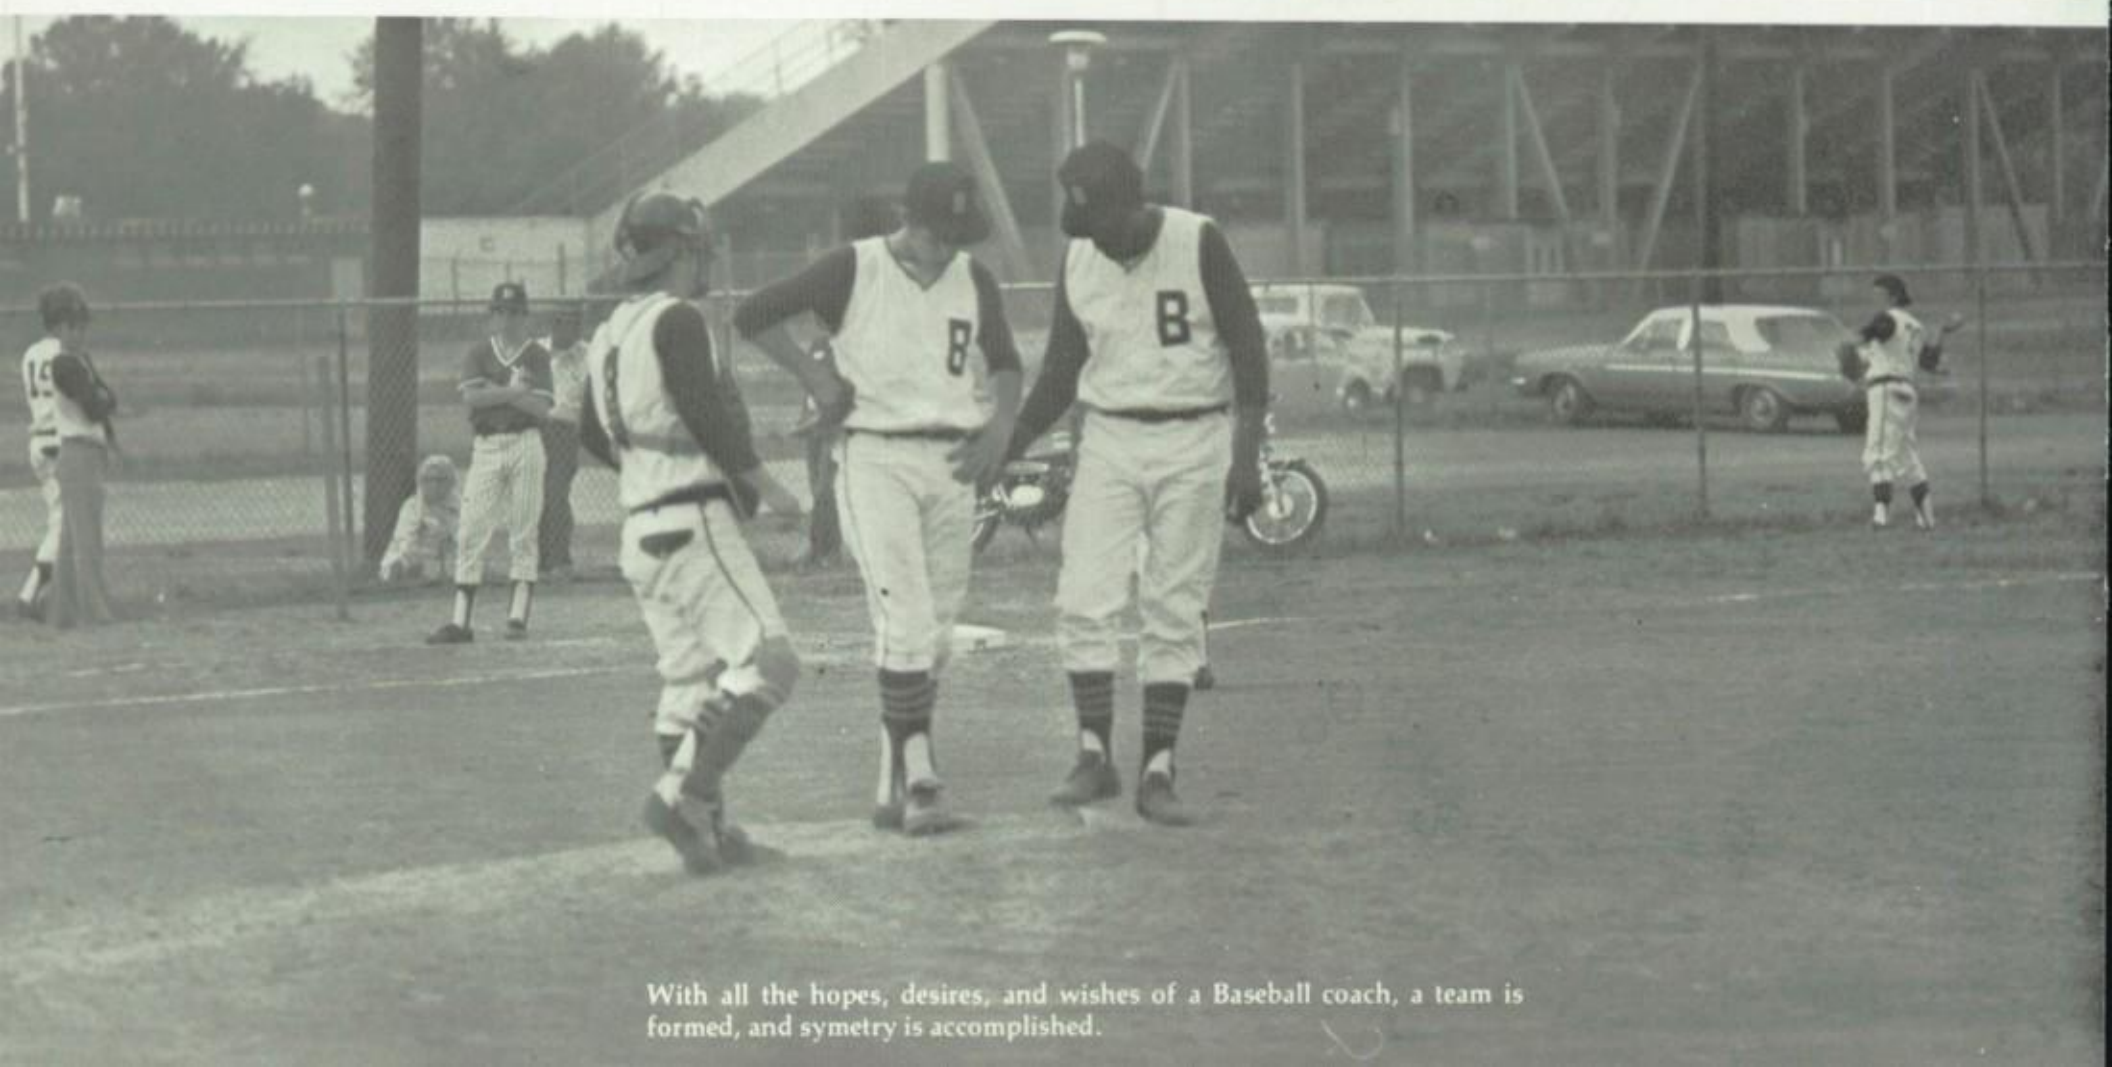
There is no room for those who are afraid to almost kill themselves.



BASEBALL – SPRING THING

In the Spring when spirits are on the way up and studies are on the way out, the scene is set for the Great American Sport: Baseball. And, as usual, Butler is the home of a winning team. Last year the Bulldogs went 10-5, one of Butler's off years but still an outstanding one. However, this year the tide is expected to turn again in favor of another Region Title for the 'Dogs. Led by the jovial Coach McFadden, the team of both shining new faces and veterans will provide excitement in the warmer months ahead.

Sliding, Running, Stealing. The game of Baseball involves more than peanuts, popcorn, and soft drinks. After all, it's whether you win or lose, not how you play the game!



With all the hopes, desires, and wishes of a Baseball coach, a team is formed, and symetry is accomplished.

Tut!
I've really been lucky to know you all these years. you have a lot of good points about you & one day the world is gonna discover one of its little inhabitants. Don't never, ever change, you're a classic! Love ya!
Tricia Chilton

Tut
I want you to know your really far out and stay that way. It's been great knowing you.
Ken Moore

Gerald.
You're a pretty cool dude. We've had a lot of good times in P.E. Have fun.
Mark Gaskins

Tut,
You've helped english class a lot this year. Lots of times by being a punching bag for Bobby. But it's been great knowing you.
Good luck in '74.
Ricky Rooks

Tut,
La foot, stay cool. It's been fun this year. We'll be seniors next year. We'll raise more hell then.
Terry Stacy

Tut,
I can't explain what it's like having someone to sit and talk with about everything or nothing at all. Sometimes I feel that in many ways we share identical emotions. Things can get awfully rough sometimes and it means so much to have someone that maybe understands just a little bit. You're a fantastic person Tut & you have so much feeling and love for people. God Bless you. Love Always
Mary Staak

Tut.

Hi! You really are a great guy! You'll always be a close friend. You always seem to cheer everyone up. That's really great. Next year is going to be a great year! See ya' then. Stay yourself.

God bless

-Cindy-

P.S. I hope you always get as much gum as you want. (Just kidding)

Tut.
Over the year you have been a nice young man sometime. I wish for you the best of sucess in the future life to come.

Too bad you weren't our Spirit Kid this year but this year wasn't to great anyway. Hope to see ya' over the summer and have ya in one of my classes next year. (You know I'm always good to you, you handsome thing!)
Love,
Terry

Tut,
Keep on being the good sport you are. I would've written in Chinese but I don't know how.
Terry

Dearest Tut? How is your -B-.? I suppose this is a circular note. Can you tell? Whatever you know I had fun this year and well probably have fun next year. Keep your head up, Tut, and stay cool. God bless you with a lot of love, Cindy

Tut,
It was nice knowing you. I liked the way you treated people. See ya next year.
Lots of Luck,
Lynda

Tut,
I don't think I have seen a more considerate, and thoughtful person in my entire life. Good luck in the future.
